The second Baptist Church, Fourth street and Virginia avenue southeast, will introduce a new program for the Sunday morning gathering on the coming Sunday.

All teachers and officers will meet at $:30 o'clock for a devotional service, At $:45 o'clock the teachers and officers will be in their respective departments to greet the people as they assemble. At 10 o'clock will occur the opening exercises of the Bible school, which this church terms "the study service," the classes will take up the lessons for the day at 10:15; all will reassemble at 10:50, and after announcements there will be an intermission until 11, when the morn-announcements there will be an intermission until 11, when the morning worship will begin.

It is thought that many advantages will be found in the new program, and it is expected that the attendance at the "study service" will be increased, inasmuch as there are classes for all ages, the departments are well organized, and all are welcome.

The pastor, the Rev. Hinson Vernon Howlett, will have as his theme for the morning "My Neighbor," and for the evening "What Is Sin?"

After a tour of two months abroad, which it has been stated, included preaching appointments in various big cities of England and Scotland as well as returned to this country and will preach at the popular afternoon service of the Washington Temple Congregation in New Masonic Temple tomorrow at 3 o'clock.

Pastor Russell who arrives in Washington tomorrow morning from Brooklyn will take as his subject "Clean Hands and a Pure Heart."
